Vision Statement

The vision of Motlow State Community College is to be the area's recognized center for life-long learning and growth opportunities.

History

Motlow State Community College opened its doors as a two-year community college in 1969 with a student enrollment of 551 and 18 full-time faculty members. As we head into our 50th year as an institution, student enrollment is over 6,500 with 99 full-time faculty.

State Senator Reagor Motlow, along with brothers Connor, Robert, and D. E.; mother Mrs. Lem Motlow; sister, Mrs. James Boyd, and uncle, Tom Motlow, donated 187 acres located in Moore County, Tennessee to house the college. The college was named Motlow State Community College as a tribute to the Motlow family.

Motlow State surpasses the vision of its pioneers more than 40 years ago. Motlow embraces the community college concept to its greatest degree. In addition to being a quality education institution where teaching and learning are paramount, Motlow has expanded its services to an 11-county area with four teaching locations in Lynchburg, Fayetteville, McMinnville, and Smyrna.

Motlow's history includes leadership by presidents Sam Ingram, Harry Wagner, Frank Glass, Art Walker, MaryLou Apple, Anthony Kinkel, interim president Hilda Tunstill, and our current president Michael Torrence. These individuals have guided the college to the forefront in technology and nursing education. The four-year institution continues as a primary customer with the majority of Motlow students in transfer programs.

Motlow prepares its students to meet the challenges of a global community while making an economic, intellectual, social and professional impact in local communities.
